

The smart way
to buy insurance.

TRUSTED CHOICE®

Allied Insurance

a Nationwide® company
On Your Side®

You want to buy insurance and financial services products from people who have your best interests in mind. Choosing a Trusted Choice® agency lets you know there's a big difference between your agent and the one down the street. You can be sure you'll get competitive pricing, a broad choice of products and unparalleled customer advocacy.

What is Trusted Choice? Trusted Choice is the national program developed by the Independent Insurance Agents & Brokers of America to emphasize the value an independent insurance agent can bring to you as a consumer.

About Allied Insurance As a member of the Nationwide family of companies, Allied Insurance offers the quality insurance protection and customer service that define an industry leader. We're committed to working with the best independent agents in the insurance business. That's why we're a Trusted Choice company partner. Every day, our entire company is committed to making the Trusted Choice promise a reality for you. You'll see it in our products, our customer service, working with our agents, and in every interaction we have with you.

Pledge of Performance There's no better measure of the Trusted Choice promise than the Trusted Choice Pledge of Performance—the commitment to treat you like a person and not just a policy.

Allied's Trusted Choice agents will:
